High Performance Decorative Solutions for Interior Design

This CPD is designed to assist you in better understanding the world of decorative solutions. Numerous topics will be explored in the session, from what are decorative solutions and how are they manufactured all the way through to applications and the green credentials that can be achieved.

With you, we will discuss the various challenges you may come across when researching your future projects and how decorative surfaces may provide you with the perfect solution.

By the end of this CPD seminar delegates should:

1. Have a better understanding the world of decorative solutions.
2. Have a better Understanding where the products can be used.
3. Know how can they fit into your next interior design project.
4. Know sectors into which decorative solutions are supplied.
5. Know the green credentials & certifications.
